

FROM YOUR STATE SENATOR GARY WINFIELD

CELEBRATING THE CIVIL RIGHTS LEGACY OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

New Haven Love March

The annual Love March is in its 45th year. I was proud to have recently returned to the march in the streets of New Haven with the Pastors Hampton to keep alive the memory and legacy of those who locked arms and marched for equity and justice. If there were ever a time that we need be aware of our history, that time is now.

For more information about the historic Love March and other historically significant events in New Haven please visit the New Haven Historical Society and Museum Webpage at www.newhavenmuseum.org or visit my Webpage at www.SenatorWinfield.cga.ct.gov.

Standing Up for Workers' Rights

I am determined to carry on the good work as Chairman of the Labor Committee. I am resolved to fight for our middle-class values and pass those values on to the next generation.

Fighting for Fair and Equitable Housing

As Chairman of the Housing Committee I see how a vibrant middle-class feeds all corners of the housing and real estate market.

Ensuring Access to High-Quality Education

I am the Vice-Chair of the Education Committee and am committed to ensuring that our children get to know the proud history of their city, their state and our nation.
